Roots & Shoots at Fernbank

Are you interested in making your community and the world a better place? Learn new skills that will equip you to lead positive change. Create your own community projects that help people, animals, and the environment. Join Roots & Shoots at the Fernbank Museum today.

Who can join?

Students grade 6-8 who live in DeKalb County.

What will we do?

Work with your fellow students to identify and build a project at the museum that would make the world a better place.

What's required?

The group will meet once a month, on the last Saturday of each month, for 2-3 hours. You must commit to these meetings through December.

How do I apply?

Fill out this registration form: <https://forms.office.com/r/tEMRnzMgZH>

Space is limited and granted on a first come, first served basis.

This project is made possible by the support of DeKalb County Commissioner Ted Terry.
